Courts to Settle "Ferret" Case. The validity of the contract entered into by the Board of County Supervisors with P. M. Cunningham, the "tax ferret," whereby the county is pledged to pay Conningham a sum equaling 50 per cent of all moneys recovered into the treasury through his efforts, is to be attacked in the courts.

Frank Shinn, attorney of Carson, in the castern part of the county, is in the city for the purpose of commencing proceedings to enjoin the board from carrying out this contract. The petition will be filed in the district court today and Judge Thornell asked to grant a temporary restraining

When seen last evening Attorney Shinn said: "I am bringing the proceedings in my own name and will appear as plaintiff, although I will have another attorney associated with me in the case. I intend to attack the validity of the county's contract with Cunningham and prevent, if possible, the board paying him more than 15 per cent. the remuneration fixed by the last general assembly. The papers are practically all ready and the petition will be filed Wednesday, when I shall ask the court to grant a temporary restraining order against the board until such time as the case can be fully heard and determined."

STEWART JEFFERSON IS MISSING Creditors at Oakland Are Trying to Attach His Inheritance.

OAKLAND, Ia., Jan. 8 .- (Special.) - The sudden disappearance of Stewart Jefferson has caused suits to be begun by numerous creditors for small sums. The suits are accompanied by attachment, as the defendant cannot be found. Jefferson was the sole legatee in his mother's will, whereby he came into possession of 200 or 300 acres of valuable lands in this county, worth $50 per acre. Trouble came up between him and his less lucky brothers, who claimed that they were as deserving as he, and litigation was rife for a time, in fact, is still on, so rumor says, concerning the will and the property dedicated by it. Jefferson took possession of the farm, however, rented it to his father-in-law, moved to town, bought town property and soon branched out in business. Street, Grand Rapids, Michigan, relates the following story "The birth of my first child left me in a deplorable condition. My system was broken down and I suffered from general d billis. I was exceedingly nervous and rheumatism often troubled me. My appellie failed me and the most delicate and inviting food failed to tempt me. I was thin and pale, and had neither energy nor ambitton. My case had been growing steadily worse for two years. I had used several so-called remedies but found no curative qualities in them.

"In the summer of 1898, I was visiting my grandmother in Ludington, Mich., and there learned of the wonderful cures effected by Dr. Williams Plak Pills for Pale People. I triled the pills and had not finished one box before I felt much better. I continued them through the year and the result was a perfect cure. I am no longer nervous nor rheumatic and have more than regained my lost fieth. I certainly recommend the pills to all who need them and their results have always been beneficial."

ongress Asked to Give Consideration to Measures by Which $100,000,000 Worth of Sugar New Imported May Be Produced at Home.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 2 .- About twenty of the thirty or more beet sugar industries of the United States were represented to strengthening its hold on the sugar inter-

We carnestly pretest against any form of reciprocity that would sacrifice protection to the domestic sugar-growing and manu-facturing industry.

Resolved, That the supplying of our home Hesolved. That the supplying of our home market with the yearly $100,000,000 worth of sugar now annually imported is an opportunity for domestic agriculture, inher and manufacture that is werthy of the highest consideration by congress. These vast domestic interests should not be jeopardized by a reciprocity treaty whose purpose is to admit (ropical sugars into this market to the sacrifice of this home industry. It was also agreed to protest against the
